

Rules for Phone Safety

- Remember that phones are a public space.

- If you do not know the number, let the call go to voicemail.

- Make sure to call and text at a reasonable hour.

- Wait for a response before calling or texting again.

- When visiting with friends or family, keep your phone in your pocket or purse.

- Turn off your phone at places like a church, temple, theater, school, or work.

